Circus Mojo hosts CIRKUS from Denmark

LUDLOW, Ky.,-

Twenty Danish circus performers and coaches arrived in the Greater Cincinnati area early on the morning of the thirteenth of October for a circus exchange with Circus Mojo in Ludlow, Kentucky. The Danish troupe leader and founder of Cirkus Charlie and director of Salling Cirkus Kids, Einar Trie has been a clown for 45 years. In 1985 Trie performed in the opening ceremony for the Olympics in Moscow and in 1986 he walked from the top of the Grand Canyon to the bottom and back up on 3 foot (one meter) stilts.

Trie and Circus Mojo's founder first met Paul Miller in Berlin at the Network of International Circus Educators conference in 2011 and again in 2013 in Finland at the First Ever Effective Circus Conference where Miller was delivering the closing keynote address. While together in Finland they began a partnership that has led to Mojo sending performers to Denmark and Trie presenting at the 2nd International College Circus Festival in Ludlow in May 2014.

About The Social Circus Foundation: A nonprofit 501c3, raises funds to support programs using circus as tools for social change and in medical settings. Many of the people we serve have limited resources. The fund will serve as a clearinghouse for scholarships and to educate and study the application of circus in non-traditional settings.

About Circus Mojo: Founded in 2009 by former Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey clown Paul Miller, Circus Mojo engages people of all ages to focus on abilities in hospitals, boardrooms, events, workshops, and other venues. With three focus areas – entertainment, education and community development – its programs and performances are designed to unlock personal talent, confidence, drive and spirit. To date: Denmark is now added to a list of 17 countries who have come to work train exchange and perform in Ludlow KY: Argentina, Australia, Antigua, China, Ethiopia, Germany, Ghana, India, Indonesia, Israel, Kenya, Malaysia, Mexico, Togo, Republic of Congo, Sudan, and Suriname.
