ALSO ATTENDING: City Attorney Todd McMurtry, City Administrator/Police Chief Scott Smith, City Clerk Laurie Sparks

Mayor Boone advised that he recently signed an executive order agreeing to work with the Kenton County Emergency Management Agency during the COVID-19 global pandemic. Mayor Boone requested that Council approve an emergency ordinance to impose stricter guidelines and a stricter curfew for minors during the state of emergency.

Governor Andy Beshear declared a state of emergency and this ordinance will expire when the state of emergency expires.
